Heart diseases are the leading cause of death. Much of this is preventable with good technology to detect, cure, and manage the case. At Tricog, each day we aim to achieve the same by building not just products but the eco-systems for cardiovascular disease management. We are helping patients to get access to better diagnosis and better care, potentially saving their life and that is what motivates us. Our team works across the entire range including hardware, algorithms, software, and medical expertise to solve this pressing problem.

Our aim is to change the 80% chance that a heart attack will take your life to an 80% chance that you will survive. We use technology to help patients gain access to quick, accurate, and affordable diagnoses, which can lead to significant mortality reduction.
